

Biking Mai Chau - 2 Days

Brief Itinerary:

Day 1: Hanoi – Mai Chau (L, D)

Day 2: Mai Chau – Hanoi (B, L)

Remark:

B= Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner

Tour includes:

- Homestay
- Vietnam visa approval letter
- Private support van
- Experienced English-speaking guides
- Mountain bike
- All sightseeing tickets
- Cold bottle of water during biking time
- Breakfast, Lunches and dinners as indicated in the itinerary
- Taxes and services charges

Tour excludes:

- Visa stamping fee
- Pre and post accommodation
- Drinks, gratuities and personal expenses
- Insurance

Detail itinerary:

---

Day 1: Hanoi – Mai Chau (L, D)

---

Depart Hanoi early morning for 3.5 hour journey to Mai Chau. The region is home to White Thai, H'mong, Zao, Muong, Tay and Hoa ethnic minorities who live in charming stilt homes. Arrive in Pom Coong village, you will walk around the village and have lunch with Thai ethnic family. In the afternoon, start cycling through the lovely villages in Mai Chau valley (Pom Coong, Van Mai, Xam khoe villages...). You have chance to get in touch with the local villagers, witness their daily life tilling the fields, logging or herding buffalo. Transfer back to Lac Villages for dinner and overnight home stay.

---

Day 2: Mai Chau – Hanoi (B, L)

---

Flowing the breakfast at your homestay, you will have an early start to take full advantage of the day. Cycling from village to village, covering a distance of around 30 kilometers. Interact with locals from the Thai and Muong ethnic minorities. They specialize in weaving brocade products and they're happy to show visitors their skills. Enjoy the lunch in Mai Chau town then drive back to Hanoi.