Detail itinerary:

Day 1: Siem Reap arrival- Angkor Temples (D)

Welcome to Siem Reap, you will be picked up and transferred to the city centre. After a short break, start to visit the Roluos Group. The monuments of Roluos, which served as the capital of Hariharaya I (reigned 877-89), are among the earliest large, permanent temples built by the Khmers and mark the beginning of Khmer classical art of Preah Ko erected by Indravarman I in the late 9th century. Bakong is the largest and most interesting of the Roluos group temples, with his active Buddhist monastery just to the north of the east entrance. Lolei was built on an islet in the center of a large reservoir (now rice fields) by Yasovarman I, the founder to the first city at Angkor. Afternoon, continue to the temple of Prasat Kravan which contains some remarkable brick bas-reliefs. Then visit Banteay Kdei and Srah Srang Royal Bath. Our last stop will be the pyramid temple of Pre Rup which offers a brilliant panoramic view of the surrounding countryside and is a popular spot to enjoy the sunset.

Day 2: Angkor Temples by Remark (B)

This morning, you will visit Ta Prohm (Lara craft or Tomb Raider) and Angkor Wat. Ta Prohm is described the places of a statue of the king's mother in form of Prajnaparamita, the excellence of wisdom, considered as 'mother of Buddha'.

Angkor Wat is the most disinterested, the most perfect Khmer temple. Its distinctive five towers are celebrated on the Cambodian flag and the 12th century masterpiece is considered by art historians to be the prime example of classical Khmer art and architecture. Angkor Wat's five towers symbolize Meru's five peaks - the enclosing wall represents the mountains at the edge of the world and the surrounding moat, the ocean beyond.

In the afternoon, continue to visit the South Gate (with its huge statues depicting the churning of the ocean of milk), the ancient capital of Angkor Thom (12th century), Bayon Temple (unique for its 54 towers decorated with over 200 smiling faces of Avolokitesvara), the Royal Enclosure, Phimeanakas, the Elephants Terrace and the Terrace of the Leper King.

Day 3: Siem Reap - Tonle Sap lake (B)

Breakfast at the hotel then visit the Grand Fresh Water Lake (Tonle Sap Lake) Kampong Phluk. It is about 20 km southeast of Siem Reap and it is a group of three villages of stilted houses built within the floodplain of the Tonle Sap .The habitant of village is almost Khmer with about 3,000 people Flooded mangrove forest surrounding the area is home to a variety of wildlife including crab-eating macaques. After the trip, transfer to the airport for the flight departure.

After that, visit Les Artisan D' Angkor: it is produced to help young people to find work in their home villages, provide them with a vocation and a role in society. You will visit the artisans and their craft, the training and professional workshops, and their collection from traditional lines to very latest designs connecting Khmer traditions to improvement. And then visit Old Market called " Psha Chass" .

Day 4: Siem Reap – fly to Phnom Penh (B)

This morning, you will fly to Phnom Penh. Upon arrival, the tour guide and driver will pick you up and transfer to city centre. After a short break, start your city tour with a visit to the Royal Palace, built by King Norodom in 1866 on the site of the old town, and the Silver Pagoda. Located within the grounds of the Royal Palace, the Silver Pagoda is so named because of its floor, which is made up of 5000 silver tiles. The resources found inside include a solid gold Buddha covered and weighing 90kilograms and a small 17th century emerald and baccarat crystal Buddha. Continue the tour with National Museum, also called Musee des Beaux-Arts. A French archaeologist and painter, Georges Groslier, designed it in Khmer style in 1917. The museum contains a collection of Khmer art - notably sculptures - throughout the ages. Have free time for shopping at Russian Market – a famous market in Phnom Penh.
